

Fraud and Anti-Corruption Policy for the Public Appointments Service
Prepared by: CD	Approved by: Senior Management Team	Effective Date: 1/5/2022	Revision # 8
Review Date: 1/5/2023

Purpose

The Public Appointments Service is, and wishes to be seen by all as, honest and opposed to fraud in the way it conducts its business. Our fraud policy addresses the responsibility of employees and management for the detecting and reporting of fraud or suspected fraud, and the responsibilities of PAS Board Members and selection board members in reporting of fraud or suspected fraud. It also covers breaches of the Ethics or Standards in Public Office legislation by staff at AP level or above in PAS or members of the Board of PAS.

Scope

This policy is limited to financial and asset related fraud within PAS. It applies to the staff of PAS, selection board members/assessors, PAS board members, candidates, contractors/suppliers or any entity which has entered into a contract with PAS. The scope of the policy also covers breaches of the Ethics or Standards in Public Office legislation by staff at AP level or above in PAS or members of the Board of PAS.

Policy

It is the policy of PAS to identify and promptly investigate any possibility of fraudulent or related dishonest activities and, when appropriate, to pursue legal remedies available under the law. PAS aims to promote an organisation culture which encourages the prevention of fraud by raising awareness of the need for high standards of personal and professional conduct. Any act of fraud ascertained upon investigation, or pursuant to a criminal conviction, or through written acknowledgment by the person(s) concerned, shall result in the appropriate disciplinary and legal actions against the employee(s) and/or entities, to include the possibility of termination of employment, termination of contract, restitution and/or forwarding information to the appropriate authorities for criminal prosecution. The repayment of losses will be sought in all cases and PAS would normally expect to recover all costs in addition to the recovery of losses.

Definitions

For the purposes of this policy, fraud shall include but is not limited to:

- Theft or misappropriation of PAS assets
- Submitting false claims for payments or reimbursement
- Accepting or offering a bribe or accepting gifts or other favours under circumstances that might reasonably lead to the inference that the gift or favour was intended to influence an employee's, PAS Board Member's or selection board member's/assessor's decision-making while serving in or for PAS
- Accepting a payment/gift from a third party
- Blackmail or extortion
- Paying of excessive prices or fees where justification thereof is not documented
- Violation of PAS procedures with the aim of personal gain or to the detriment of PAS or its reputation
- Willful negligence intended to cause damage to the material interest of PAS
- A dishonourable or irresponsible or deliberate act against the interests of the organisation.

Unethical behaviour for the purposes of this policy is behaviour which breaches the requirements set out in the Ethics or Standards in Public Office legislation. Staff should also ensure that they understand the requirements of the Code of Standards and Behaviour in this regard and the Guidelines for this office.

Responsibility for the Detection and Prevention of Fraud

Managers and employees at all levels are responsible for exercising due diligence and control to prevent, detect and report acts of fraud. Those who fail to carry out these responsibilities will be subject to disciplinary action up to and including termination of employment.

Responsibility of Management

It is the responsibility of managers (particularly budget holders) to be familiar with the types of improprieties that might occur in their area and be alert for any indication that improper activity, misappropriation or dishonest activity is or was in existence in his or her area and put in place controls, checks and governance arrangements to avoid such occurrences.

Managers are required to support and work with PAS staff, other units and law enforcement agencies in the detection, reporting and investigation of dishonest or fraudulent activity including the prosecution of offenders. If a fraud is detected in an area the senior manager is responsible for taking appropriate corrective actions to ensure adequate controls exist to prevent reoccurrence of improper actions.

Responsibility of Employees

It is the responsibility of all employees to conduct their business in such a way as to prevent fraud occurring in the workplace. Employees must also be alert to the possibilities for fraud and be on guard for any indications that improper or dishonest activity is taking place.

Responsibility of PAS Board Members and Selection Board Members/Assessors

It is the responsibility of all PAS Board Members and selection board members/assessors to conduct their business in such a way as to prevent any improper or dishonest activity occurring in relation to their PAS role and responsibilities.

Reporting Fraud or Unethical Behaviour

It is the responsibility of all concerned to report any suspicion of fraud immediately according to the procedure laid out below. Persons who cover up, obstruct, fail to report, or monitor a fraud that they become aware of, or ought to have been aware of, will be considered to be an accessory after the fact and may be subject to disciplinary action and/or termination of employment. Persons who threaten retaliation against a person reporting a suspected fraud shall be subject to disciplinary action up to and including termination of employment.

Great care must be taken in dealing with suspected dishonest or fraudulent activities to avoid:

- Incorrect accusations
- Alerting suspected individuals to an investigation underway
- Treating the person(s) accused unfairly
- Making statements that could lead to claims of false accusations or other charges.

In all cases, the incident, facts, suspicions or allegations should not be discussed with anyone inside or outside of PAS unless specifically directed to do so by the officer investigating the incident. In particular, the matter should not be discussed with the individual suspected of fraud.

Fraud can be detected at any level within PAS and the following general principles should apply in the reporting of suspected fraud:

- A person who suspects that fraudulent practice may be operating should, in the first instance, report the matter to his/her manager. Should it be inappropriate to make such a report to an immediate manager, the report should be made to the senior manager, Head of Corporate Services or directly to the CEO;
- Once a report of suspected fraud is made to the manager that person should report the suspicion to a senior manager, the Head of Corporate Services or the CEO;
- A senior manager on receipt of a report of a suspected fraud should report the matter to the Head of Corporate Services and CEO.

Suspected fraud may also be reported using the procedures set out in the Protected Disclosures Policy, and the person reporting fraud (through either mechanism) may also be entitled to protections set out in the Protected Disclosures Act 2014.

No investigation of the suspected fraud should take place until the Head of Corporate Services and/or CEO has been informed. If the case involves either/both of these individuals, the Chairperson of the Internal Audit Committee should be informed.

Proposed Procedures for the Investigation of Alleged Fraud of Alleged Unethical Behaviour

The Head of Corporate Services /CEO will have responsibility for co-ordinating the PAS response and will seek expert legal advice from the Chief State Solicitor's Office/Office of the Attorney General or other advice if required and will decide whether there is sufficient evidence of a crime being committed to involve An Garda Síochána at this stage. The CEO will inform the Internal Audit Committee as appropriate and keep them informed of developments and will notify the Board that an investigation is underway (either internally or by An Garda Síochána).

Internal Investigation

The CEO/Head of Corporate Services may notify the Internal Auditor who will, if appropriate, conduct an initial investigation to gather factual information and reach a preliminary view as to whether further action is required. The Internal Auditor will report the findings, conclusions, and any recommendations to the Head of Corporate Services/CEO. Alternatively the initial investigation may be conducted by the Head of Corporate Services, or other designated senior manager from PAS (or another Civil Service Office/Department).

Where initial investigation provides reasonable grounds for suspecting the accused of fraud or a dishonest activity, or unethical behaviour, the Head of Corporate Services, in consultation with the CEO and other relevant officers, will decide if any actions are necessary to prevent further loss. This may require the suspension with or without pay of the member or members of staff (which will take place in accordance with the Disciplinary Code) and/or the decision as to whether further investigation is required.

Each case will be considered individually in accordance with the expert advice obtained with a view to minimising the losses (both monetary and otherwise) to the office. Having reached a decision as to what further action is necessary and how such actions should be undertaken, the Head of Corporate Services will liaise with other senior managers and the CEO.

When further investigation is required, an Investigating Committee and its Chair will be appointed by the CEO for each case. All meetings of the Committee will be treated as confidential and shall be fully documented with investigation work normally led by an Internal Auditor. In circumstances where the investigation requires the use of technical expertise which the Internal Auditor may not possess, the Investigating Committee may appoint external specialists (subject to the approval of the CEO) to lead and/or contribute to the investigation.

Upon completion of its investigation, the Investigating Committee will submit a written report of its findings and its recommendation(s) to the CEO who will issue a decision on the matter and determine whether disciplinary procedures should be invoked or whether the Gardaí should be notified. The Head of Corporate Services /CEO will communicate the decision to the person(s) accused of the fraud or related dishonest activity and will submit a copy of the report to the Audit Committee. Any appeal of this decision will be made to the Chairman of the Board.

Employees or others who are under investigation shall be entitled to have a member of staff or other appropriate individual present during the course of any interview that is conducted in connection with the alleged fraud or related dishonest activity or unethical behaviour with a view to defending their case.

The Press Officer/CEO will be responsible for dealing with any enquiries from the press and other media.

The Audit Committee will, at an appropriate time, consider the results of the investigation and assess whether there is a weakness in systems of internal control which need to be addressed. The Audit Committee will report the findings, conclusions and recommendations, following consultation with the relevant unit(s), to the Board.

Accounting for Loss, Restitution and Recovery

The unit incurring the loss from a dishonest or fraudulent act will normally suffer the loss until monies can be recovered through insurance or restitution.

References for Employees Disciplined or Prosecuted for Fraud

Where there is a request for a reference for a member of staff who has been disciplined or prosecuted for fraud or a dishonest activity, the Head of Corporate Services shall prepare any reply to a request for a reference having regard to office policies and employment law.

Communication and Training

This Policy will be communicated to all staff through the Intranet and will include a briefing note as to the importance of vigilance in this area. The existence of a Fraud Policy will also be highlighted to selection board members in their board information pack. The PAS Board will be made aware of this Policy on an ongoing basis.

The Head of Corporate Services and other selected senior managers were trained in the awareness and investigation of fraud.

Review of Fraud and Anti Corruption Policy

This policy (and the risk assessment) will be reviewed annually by the Head of Corporate Services.

Internal Controls

An annual review is conducted of internal controls, including those controls in place to prevent fraud and unethical behaviour. A Report is prepared for the Management Board, PAS Board and the Audit Committee. This Report includes the operation of all internal controls, highlights any issues identified, and includes an action plan for implementation where any issues or areas for improvement are identified.

Note

If the suspected incident involves the Head of Corporate Services, another member of the Management Board shall undertake the role and functions specified for the Head of Corporate Services.

 - Items found to have a zero market value may, at the discretion of the Management Board, be given free to staff, schools charities etc.
4. Staff involved in the disposal of surplus or obsolete assets must:
