County Librarian

Introduction

Local authorities are the closest and most accessible level of government to citizens and are responsible for the delivery of a wide range of services in their functional area with a focus on making urban areas and the countryside attractive places to live, work and invest. Their services include housing, planning, infrastructure, environmental protection, commercial development and the provision of recreational amenities and community infrastructure. They play a key role in supporting economic development and enterprise. In addition, a fundamental role of the democratically elected Council is as a forum for the representation of local communities and to provide civic leadership.

South Dublin County Council is one of four local authorities in the Dublin region. The Council's administrative area is 222.74 square kilometres, bounded by Dublin city to the northeast, the Dublin Mountains and County Wicklow to the south, the River Liffey to the north separating it from Fingal and County Kildare to the west. Within that area is a population of 278,767 people living in the county, over 6,500 business and significant economic, social and cultural infrastructure to serve a growing capital city region.

The Corporate Plan 2020 - 2024 provides the vision and strategic direction for the Council over the next five years and sets out the ambition to make the county a vibrant and inclusive place for the people who live, visit, work and do business here, now and for the future. The role of the Council as provided for in law is to represent, lead and serve the communities of South Dublin County.

This is achieved through the role of 40 elected members who represent seven electoral areas and approximately 1,300 employees. The revenue budget for 2021 provides over €268 million in expenditure to deliver these services. A three-year programme of capital investment of a further €570m in the infrastructure of the county will facilitate accelerated provision of social and affordable housing, the regeneration of the county's towns, villages and district centres, the advancement of the Clonburris SDZ, the completion of numerous climate action initiatives and the provision of significant community infrastructure to meet the needs of expanding communities and those planned for the future.

As part of that community infrastructure two new Libraries at North Clondalkin and Castletymon have been completed in the last year and a further Library for the West of the County is at feasibility stage. This is in addition to the County Library in Tallaght, branches at Ballyroan, Clondalkin and Lucan, a Library Hub at Palmerstown and a Mobile Library service. The Arts Office for the County is aligned with the Library Service and the Service works closely with the South Dublin Local Enterprise Office to support local business.

Applications should be made online through www.publicjobs.ie. All sections of the form must be fully completed.

Before applying candidates should log-on to www.publicjobs.ie and if you have not already done so you must register as a 'New User' to create your profile (register a new account). Please do not confuse registering (creating a profile) with submitting an application. Once you have created a profile you must then access the application form, complete and submit it.

Once you have submitted your application form it is suggested that you return to your publicjobs account and ensure that it has been successfully submitted via 'My Applications'. Only fully submitted applications will be accepted into the campaign. Applications will not be accepted after the closing date.

The admission of a person to this competition, or invitation to attend for interview is not to be taken as implying that the PAS is satisfied that such person fulfils the requirements.

Closing Date

Your online application must be submitted through www.publicjobs.ie not later than 3pm on Thursday 17th June 2021. Applications will not be accepted after this date.

If you do not receive an acknowledgement of receipt of your application within two working days of applying, please contact LRecruitment@publicjobs.ie

Publicjobs Messageboard

Interaction with candidates during the selection process will primarily be conducted online. PAS will send most communication through your publicjobs Messageboard. Check your Messageboard on a regular basis as email notifications of updates/tests issued to your Messageboard may sometimes be filtered into your Junk/Spam email folders (or "Promotions" in the case of gmail). You are also advised to check all these folders regularly.

PAS accepts no responsibility for communication not accessed or received by an applicant.

Selection Process

The selection process may include the following:

- Shortlisting of candidates on the basis of the information contained in their application;
- A preliminary interview, which may also include a presentation;
- Completion of an online questionnaire;
- A competitive interview, which may also include a presentation;
- Work sample/role play/ media exercise, and any other tests or exercises that may be deemed appropriate.

Shortlisting

The number of applications received for a position generally exceeds that required to fill existing and future vacancies for the position. While a candidate may meet the eligibility requirements of the competition, if the numbers applying for the position are such that it would not be practical to interview everyone, the Public Appointments Service may decide that a smaller number will be called to the next stage of the selection process. In this respect, the Public Appointments Service provide for the employment of a shortlisting process to select a group who, based on an examination of the application forms, appear to be the most suitable for the position. This is not to suggest that other candidates are necessarily unsuitable or incapable of undertaking the job, rather that there are some candidates, who based on their application, appear to be better qualified and/or have more relevant experience.

An expert board will examine the application forms against agreed shortlisting criteria based on the requirements of the position. The shortlisting criteria may include both the essential and desirable criteria specified for the position. It is therefore in your own interest to provide a detailed and accurate account of your qualifications/ experience in your application.

References

We would appreciate it if you would start considering names of people who you feel would be suitable referees that we might consult (2 - 3 names and contact details). The referees do not have to include your current employer, but should be in a position to provide a reference for you. Please be assured that we will only collect the details and contact referees should you come under consideration after preliminary interview stage.

Optional Language Test

You may have your ability to communicate effectively in Irish and English assessed. Your ability in the language in which the interview is conducted will be assessed at the interview itself and in the other language by a separate competitive language test. This test will comprise conversation on ordinary topics and, to the extent that this may be appropriate, on matters relating to the duties of the post. Candidates who satisfy the Public Appointments Service that they are proficient in both Irish and English will be awarded marks in respect of such proficiency. Candidates who qualify at interview and establish their proficiency will be awarded an extra 6% of the total marks available at interview.

Candidates with Disabilities

Candidates who have indicated on their application or profile that they would like to avail of reasonable accommodations are asked to submit a psychologists/medical report. The purpose of the report is to provide PAS with information to act as a basis for determining reasonable accommodations, where appropriate.

These reports must be forwarded to the Assessment Services unit, Public Appointments Service, Chapter House, 26-30 Abbey Street Upper, Dublin 1 by close of business on Thursday 17th June 2021. You should email a scanned copy of the report to asu@publicjobs.ie

If you have previously applied for a competition with PAS and submitted a report, please email asu@publicjobs.ie to confirm that your report is still on file.

If you would like to talk about your candidature and any accommodations that may be of benefit during the recruitment process, please contact our Disability Champion, Amanda Kavanagh, at amanda.kavanagh@publicjobs.ie For further information on the accessibility of our service please see our Accessibility page.

Security Clearance

The applicant will be required to complete and return a Garda Vetting form should they come under consideration for appointment. This form will be forwarded to An Garda Síochána for security checks on all Irish and Northern Irish addresses at which they resided.

Other important information

The Public Appointments Service will not be responsible for refunding any expenses incurred by candidates.

The admission of a person to a competition, or invitation to attend interview, or a successful result letter, is not to be taken as implying that the Public Appointments Service is satisfied that such a person fulfils the requirements or is not disqualified by law from holding the position.

Prior to recommending any candidate for appointment to this position the Public Appointments Service will make all such enquiries that are deemed necessary to determine the suitability of that candidate. Until all stages of the recruitment process have been fully completed a final determination cannot be made nor can it be deemed or inferred that such a determination has been made. Should the person recommended for appointment decline, or having accepted it, relinquish it, or should additional vacancies arise, PAS may at its discretion, select and recommend another person for appointment on the results of this selection process. A panel will be formed from which future vacancies may be filled from this campaign.

The Importance of Confidentiality

Subject to the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act, 2014 applications will be treated in strict confidence.

All enquires, applications and all aspects of the proceedings are treated as strictly confidential and are not disclosed to anyone, outside those directly involved in that aspect of the process. Certain items of information, not specific to any individual, are extracted from computer records for general statistical purposes.

Deeming of candidature to be withdrawn

Candidates who do not attend for interview or other test when and where required by the Public Appointments Service, or who do not, when requested, furnish such evidence as the PAS require in regard to any matter relevant to their candidature, will have no further claim to consideration.

Candidates are expected to provide all requested documentation to PAS, including all forms issued by PAS for completion, within five days of request. Failure to do so will result in the candidate being deemed to have withdrawn from the competition and their candidature will receive no further consideration.

Quality Customer Service

We aim to provide an excellent quality service to all our customers. If, for whatever reason, you are unhappy with any aspect of the service you receive from us, we urge you to bring this to the attention of the unit or staff member concerned. This is important as it ensures that we are aware of the problem and can take the appropriate steps to resolve it.

Feedback will be provided on written request. A request for feedback does not impact on the timeframe set out for seeking a review.

Use of Recording Equipment

PAS does not allow the unsanctioned use of any type of recording on its premises or any location where assessments/tests/interviews, etc. take place, e.g. video interviews, teleconference. This applies to any form of sound recording and any type of still picture or video recording, whether including sound recording or not, and covers any type of device used for these purposes. Any person wishing to use such equipment for any of these purposes must seek written permission in advance. This policy is in place to protect the privacy of staff and customers and the integrity of our assessment material and assessment processes. Unsanctioned use of recording equipment by any person is a breach of this policy. Any candidate involved in such a breach could be disqualified from the competition and could be subject to prosecution under section 55 of the Public Service Management (Recruitment & Appointments) Act, 2004.

Procedures where a candidate seeks a review of a Decision taken in relation to their application

A request for review may be taken by a candidate should they be dissatisfied with an action or decision taken by the Public Appointments Service (PAS). The PAS will consider requests for review in accordance with the provisions of Section 7 of the Code of Practice Appointments to Positions in the Civil and Public Service published by the Commission for Public Service Appointments (Commission). When making a request for a review, the candidate must support their request by outlining the facts they believe show that the action taken or decision reached was wrong. A request for review may be refused if the candidate cannot support their request.

The Commission recommends that, subject to the agreement of the candidate, where the office holder (in this instance the Chief Executive Officer of PAS) considers the matter could be resolved they should first seek to engage on an informal basis, before making use of the formal review procedure.

Procedure for Informal Review

- A request for Informal Review must be made within 5 working days of notification of the decision and should normally take place between the candidate and a representative of the PAS who had played a key role in the selection process.
- Where the decision being conveyed relates to an interim stage of a selection process, the request for informal review must be received within 2 working days of the date of receipt of the decision.
- Where a candidate remains dissatisfied following any such informal discussion, he/she may adopt the formal procedures set out below.
- If the candidate wishes the matter to be dealt with by way of a formal review, he/she must do so within 2 working days of the notification of the outcome of the informal review.

Procedure for Formal Review of Selection Process

- The candidate must address his/her concerns in relation to the process in writing to the Chief Executive, outlining the facts that they believe show an action taken or decision reached was wrong.
- A request for review must be made within 10 working days of the notification of the selection decision. Where the decision relates to an interim stage of a selection process, the request for review must be received within 4 working days.
- Any extension of these time limits will only be granted in the most exceptional of circumstances and will be at the sole discretion of the Chief Executive.
- The outcome must generally be notified to the candidate within 25 working days of receipt of the request for review.

Complaints Process

A candidate may believe there was a breach of the Commission's Code of Practice by PAS that may have compromised the integrity of the decision reached in the appointment process. The complaints process enables candidates (or potential candidates) to make a complaint under Section 8 to the Chief Executive Officer of PAS in the first instance, and to the Commission for Public Service Appointments subsequently on appeal if they remain dissatisfied.

- Allegations of a breach of the Code of Practice should be addressed in writing, and within a reasonable timeframe, to the Chief Executive Officer in the first instance. The complainant must outline the facts that they believe show that the process followed was wrong. The complainant must also identify the aspect of the Code they believe has been infringed and enclose any relevant documentation that may support the allegation. A complaint may be dismissed if they the complainant cannot support their allegations by setting out how the Public Appointments Service has fallen short of the principles of this Code.
- On receipt of a complaint PAS may determine to engage with the complainant on an informal basis.

For further information on the above procedures please see the Code of Practice Appointments to Positions in the Civil and Public Service which is available on the website of the Commission for Public Service Appointments, www.cpsa.ie

There is no obligation on the PAS to suspend an appointment process while it considers a request for a review. Please note that where a formal review of a recruitment and selection process has taken place under Section 7 of this Code of Practice, a complainant may not seek a further review of the same process under Section 8, other than in the most exceptional circumstances that will be determined by the Commission at its sole discretion.

Requests for Feedback

Feedback in relation to the selection process is available on request. There are no specific timeframes set for the provision of feedback.

Please note that the Review Process as set out in the Code of Practice is a separate process with specified timeframes that must be observed. Receipt of feedback is not required to invoke a review. It is not necessary for a candidate to compile a detailed case prior to invoking the review mechanism. The timeframe set out in the CPSA Code cannot be extended for any reason including the provision of feedback.

Candidates in the recruitment process must not:

- knowingly or recklessly provide false information
- canvass any person with or without inducements
